Camp Details

When was the last time that you and your spouse stepped back out of your daily tasks to see how your marriage is doing? A Christ-centered marriage is the foundation for success in many other areas of your life. Don't let it be overshadowed by the busyness of life! Spend a weekend away together and allow the preaching of God's Word to help you evaluate how you can take your marriage to the next level.

Speakers

Pastor Tim Potter was raised in a Christian home. He came to know Christ as his Savior as a child and in his high school years felt God was calling him to preach. He and his wife, Ronda, met in college and were married in 1991. The Potters then began their ministry at Grace Church of Mentor, Ohio, where Pastor Tim served as the youth pastor for 14 years before becoming the senior pastor in 2006. The Potters have four children: Caleb, Micah, Noah, and Emma.

Rand Hummel was raised in Orangeville, Pennsylvania, and was saved at age six. He attended Bob Jones University and immediately following graduation, he went to work at The Wilds, a Christian camp in North Carolina. Rand was the program director for 25 years. In 2007, he was appointed director of The Wilds of New England. Maintaining a busy itinerary throughout the year, Rand preaches about 350 times annually. He has also written several books and Bible study guides. Rand and his wife, Amber, have two grown children.
