Camp Details

The best way to have a successful and God-honoring marriage is to plan for one. We already have the best possible Architect, whose plans are all laid out for us in His Word. We just have to take His blueprints, and follow them. The result—happy marriages, joyful families, and a growing and thriving relationship with our Creator and Designer. Both of our retreat speakers are exemplary testimonies to how God's design works, and the sessions will be an encouragement and challenge to you. So, take some time to get away and focus on building a God-designed life.
