The Ezra Retreat is not for everybody. This retreat is for young people in grades seven through twelve who have already shown that they are willing to exercise self-discipline and stand apart from the world to be a follower of Christ. This camp is for those who are already spiritual leaders or who show a desire to become one. During this intense weekend, young people will be challenged to see themselves as God sees them, and make the necessary changes to be conformed to His image. They will learn how to search the Scriptures to find principles on which to base their daily decisions and record in a journal how they will practically live out biblical principles in their relationships with family, friends, church, and school for the rest of their lives.
