MOTHER-DAUGHTER RETREAT

Thursday dinner (6:00 p.m.)—Saturday lunch (12:30 p.m.)

Camp Details

Join us as we celebrate the enduring spirit of the American woman. Moms and daughters will enjoy an adventurous weekend fit for any pioneer that will include challenges such as the Annie Oakley shootout, a ride on our mechanical bull, and trail rides through the desert. During our sessions, our speakers will inspire us from the God's Word to rise to the challenges that He has placed in our lives with a courageous and willing spirit.

Layna grew up in West Virginia and attended Bob Jones University where she met her husband, Dave. Layna has been a pastor's wife, church musician, and educator (at elementary, high school, and college levels). She is currently the director of Kiddie Kampus Preschool at Maranatha Baptist Bible College. The Steuerwalds live in Watertown, Wisconsin, and have four adult children and eleven grandchildren.

Shannon is the daughter of Walt and Betty Brock. She met Layna's son, Steve, while attending college. They married in 1993 and have served on the Ironwood staff since 1996. Shannon is the principal of Ironwood Christian Academy and has authored two books. She and Steve have three children—Devon, Clay, and Courtney.
